Hebrews 11:32 & I Chronicles 28-29
Questions based on the sermon from May 18, 2025

Getting to Know Me

1. During this "By Faith" series, which person's story (or part of a story) surprised you, or made you see God in a new way?

2. If you could ask Abraham, Moses, Rahab, Joshua, or David one question about their faith journey, what would you want to ask – and why would you want to ask it?

Digging Deeper

3. What do you remember about the stories of those referred to in Hebrews 11:32-35a? How did they demonstrate faith (bold action based on God's character)?

4. The middle of v. 35 shifts from those who were successful in their faith to those who suffered in their faith. Read Hebrews 11:35b-38. What stands out to you about the kind of faith these people had in the middle of suffering? How might their stories encourage or challenge your own faith journey?

5. What part of David's story – praying, planning and providing for the temple – felt new to you, or reminded you of something important about God or faith?

6. Read David's charge to Solomon in 1 Chronicles 28:8-10. What helps you trust God with your whole heart, especially when it comes to giving or stepping into something that feels big?

7. How does David's example of generosity in 1 Chronicles 29:2-4 make you think about what it means to give sacrificially, not just comfortably, to God's work?

8. When you hear David's question in 1 Chronicles 29:5-6, what comes to your mind? What might it look like for you to say 'yes' to God right now to deploy your time, talent or treasure?

Making it Personal

9. According to what we see in 1 Chronicles 29:9, generosity can be contagious. Why do you think that is? Where have you seen this in your life or how might your example inspire others?

10. Alright, time for honesty: What's one area where it's difficult for you to be generous? Why do you think that is, and how might faith bring more freedom?

Build Up to Reach Out

11. As we've walked through this Build Up to Reach Out journey together, how has God been speaking to you personally?

12. When you think about the expansion, what part stirs your heart the most? What are you most excited to see God do?

Prayer

God is the one who provides everything we have. As we pray together, let's ask him to deepen our trust in his care – for our personal needs and the needs of our church family.

And let's pray boldly that he will work through us in this season of growth, so the space we build becomes a place where many more will meet Jesus and find hope.

Consider praying I Chronicles 29:10-14 out loud together.
